

4

Justin's New Bike

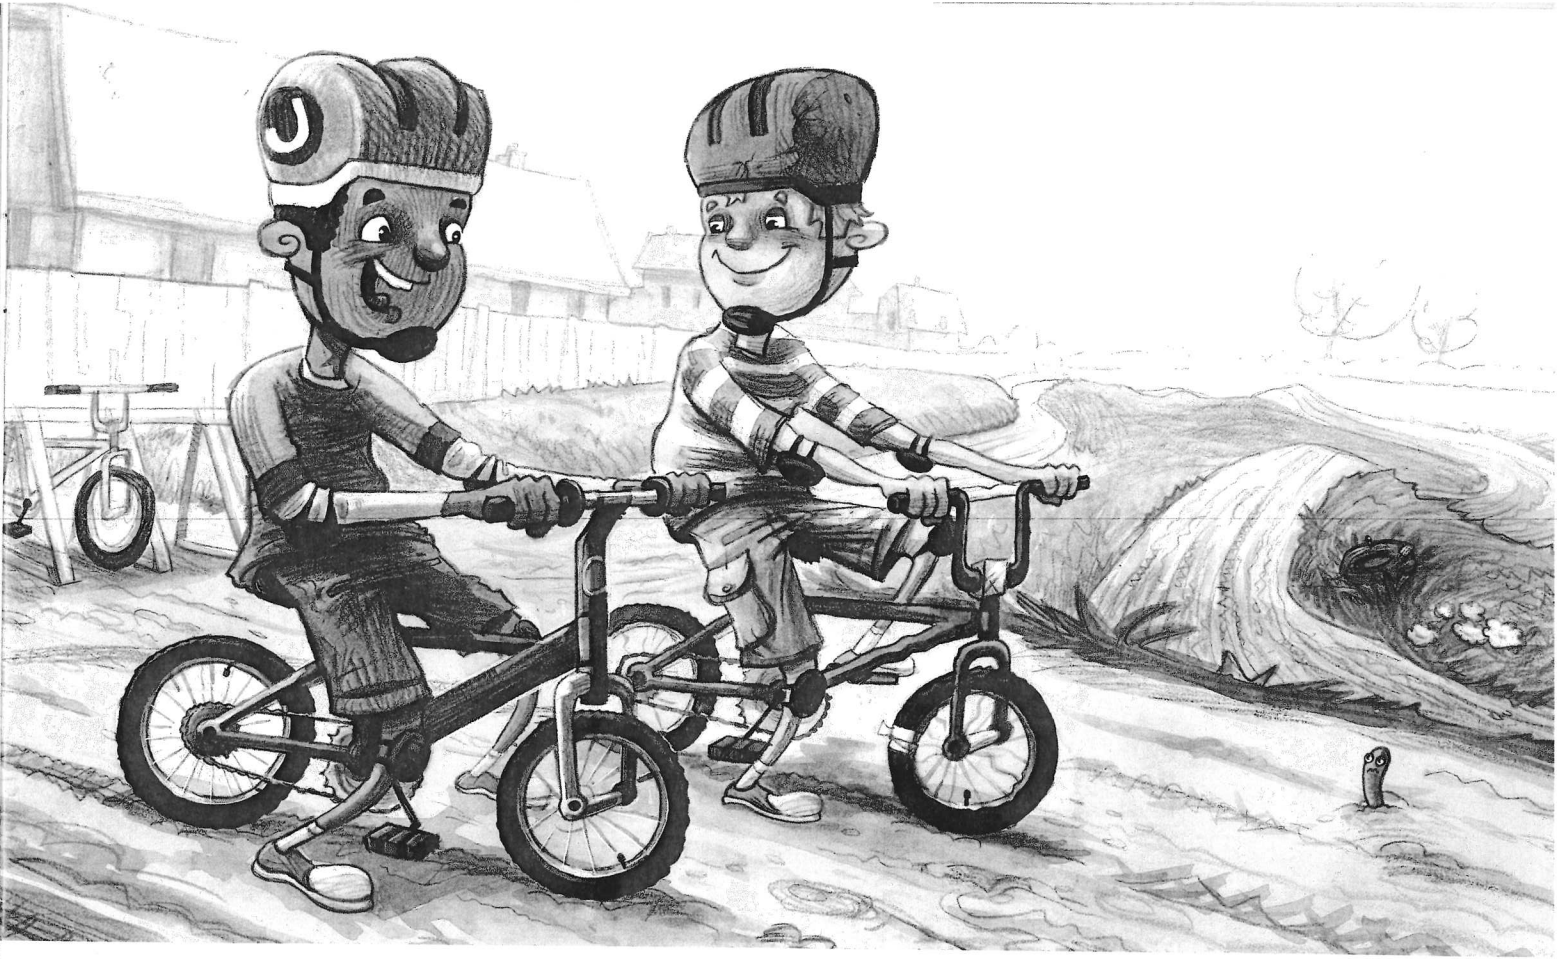

by Barbara Hill

illustrations by

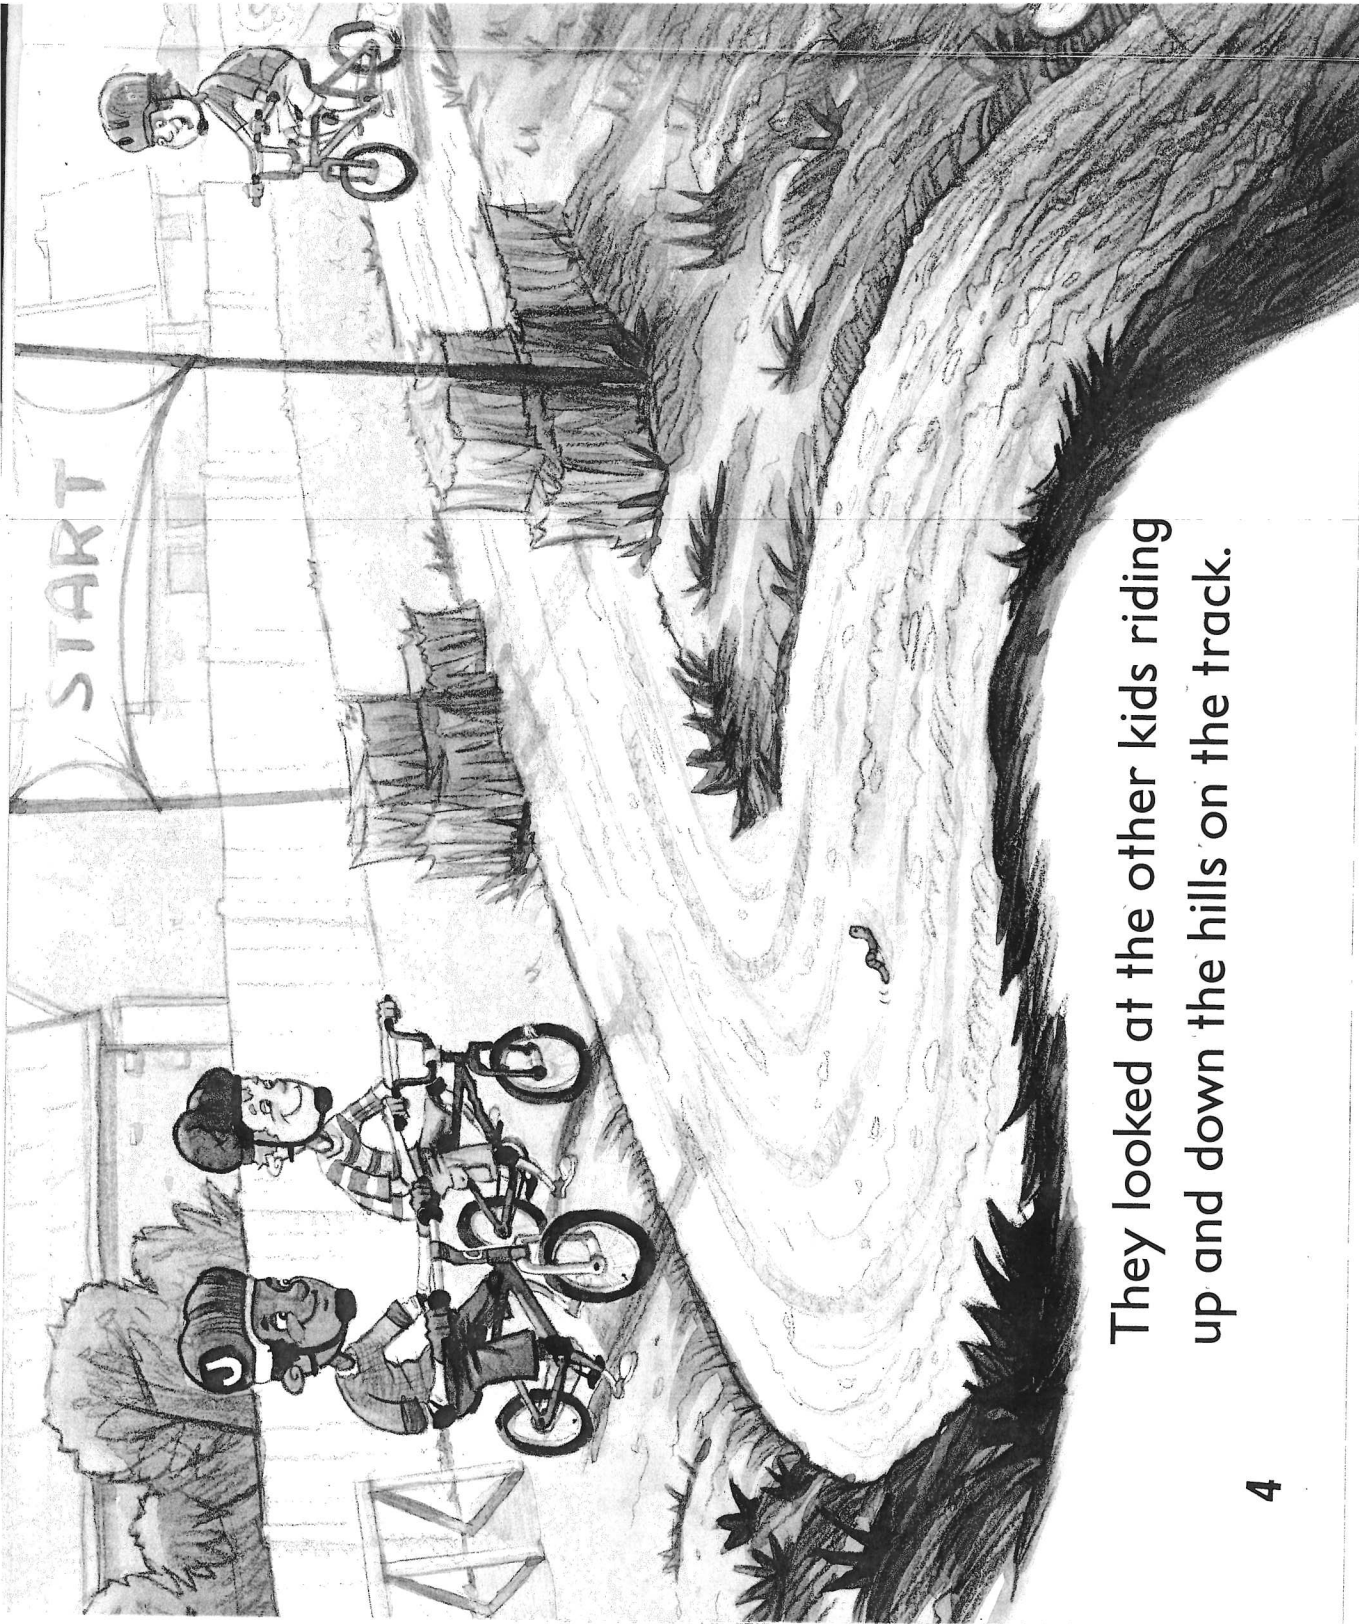

Chris Jones

SCHOLASTIC

Danny and Justin went to the bike track.
Justin had a new bike.
Danny's bike was old.

They looked at the other kids riding up and down the hills on the track.

Justin looked at Danny going around the track.

“I can do that,” said Danny.
“Look at me!” he shouted.

Danny was going very fast!
He made lots of dust.

Justin looked down at his new bike.
He looked at Danny speeding around the bike track.

“I can go faster than you,” shouted Justin.

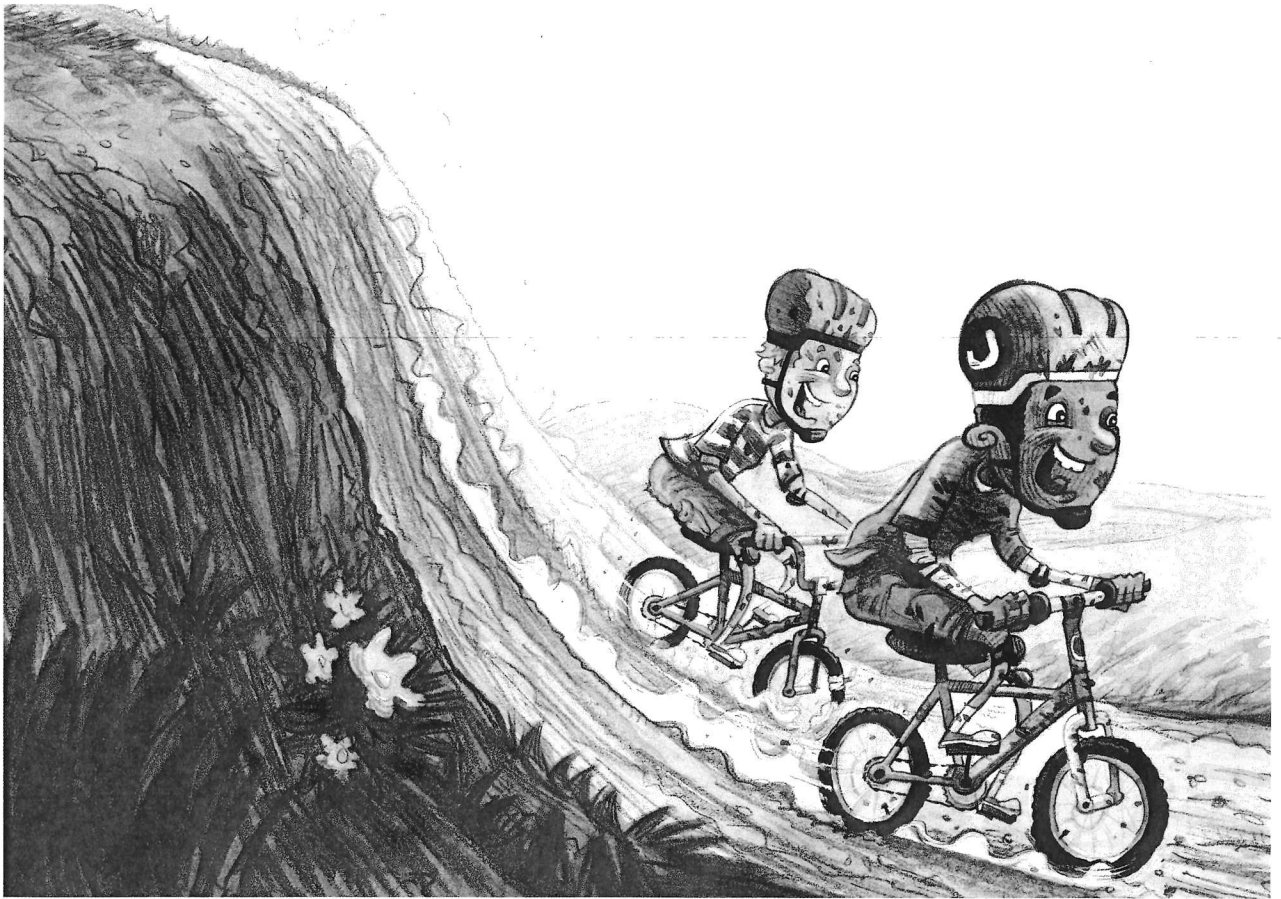

Justin took off down the first hill.
“Look out, Danny,” shouted Justin.
“Here I come!”

Justin went speeding around the track after Danny.

Dust flew up from the track.

The boys went flying over the little hills ...

and speeding down the big hills ...

all the way back to the start.

Justin looked down at his new bike.

“Now my bike looks just like yours,”
said Justin, with a big smile on his face.